House site - assignment - private sale - Hospet Taluk Hospet Co-operative Bank - sanction requested -

The Hospet Co-operative Central Bank Limited Hospet has applied for a site measuring 0.84 for the construction of a building for the Bank.

2. There is no objection to the grant of the site and there are no other applications for it. It is accordingly proposed to dispense with sales by public auction. It was previously earmarked for a municipal elementary school, but the Municipality has decided to build the school elsewhere.

The market value of the site at 0.8.0 a square yard comes to Rs.2033.

3. I request that sanction may be accorded to the private sale of the site under B.S.O.No.21 para 14 (Correction slip No.341).

4. The grant will be subject to the payment of appropriate ground rent which will be liable to revision from time to time.

5. A plan is enclosed; a road margin of 60 feet from the western compound wall of the taluk office will be left and space will also be left for a conservancy lane on the north and west of the site as desired by the Municipality; a copy of whose resolution is enclosed.

Copy of Council's resolution No. 191/19.1.30 of the Hospet Municipal Council.

Read Letter from the Secretary, Central Bank requesting for the assignment of a site formerly selected and approved for construction of a school building for an elementary school in 2nd ward and the Sub Collector's opinion to effect a compromise.

Resolution No. 191/18.1.30.

School site for 2nd Ward Elementary School be selected in a more central place and the whole of this site leaving a road margin of at least 60 feet from the western compound wall of the taluk office and a conservancy lane to the north and west of it be assigned to the Hospet Co-operative Central Bank Ltd.
